

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. Since we signed up for our Indiana law our solicitations have dropped from an average of 12-15 per week down to no more than 2-3 per week, and once again I feel as though I have some control of my own phone and how it is used. Thank You.